SPORTING EDITOR'S COLUMN. FOR NEWS COMMENT

YOUNG CORBETT is still on earth. He hopes to be in the pugilistic limelight again after April 27. The Denver Kid fights Dick Hyland then at Salt Lake City. The bout is scheduled as a twenty-round affair. Corbett says he'll win, and then let Britt Nelson and all the rest of them beware! Corbett must be given credit for persistence. More than twice has he tried to show he was still "there" only to have his aspirations plucked. This time it is meeting a comparative youngster who is coming fast.

JACK MUNROE knocked out some unknown last night and helped bolster up the reputation he made by staying four rounds with Jeffries while the latter was on a theatrical tour. Munroe still has friends and supporters who think he is a fighter, and it is possible that he may yet get another chance against some good man and make good. Jeffries was rather a tough proposition to jam the miner against. No one has tested his real mettle, and Munroe shouldn't be regarded so lightly because he went the route of Fitz, Sharkey, Ruhlin, Corbett and the rest of them.

THE GIANTS will be back in New York Saturday, and fans will get a chance to see what the Sunnysouth has done for our favorites in the way of conditioning them for the pennant fight. The Yale team will appear against the Giants in the first exhibition game here.

THERE is no telling just now what we may expect in the way of boxing at Tuckahoe. The promoters there say they can run twenty rounds just as well as ten. If they can, farewell to Philadelphia and the tedious trip there. New Yorkers don't mind a ride in a railroad train, and anyhow Tuckahoe isn't more than "forty-five minutes from Broadway."

GOOD BOUTS SEEN AT NAVARRE A.C.

George Hoy, of New York, and K.D. Stinger, of Philadelphia, fought three fast rounds last night at the boxing show of the Navarre Athletic Club in American Theatre Hall. Hoy leaving the better of the mill. Both boys are strong and willing, and many hard willows were fended. Stinger worked hard in the first two rounds, but Hoy kept pace with him, and in the third round the New York boy had his opponent well attended.
